

SPARKLING WATERS

Sparkling waters of jade and blue
Shimmer on yet touched by the sun,
Towering pines reaching toward the sky,
Echo out the songs we have sung.
Here we have lived,
Warmed by a love so true,
We shall not stray,
Though we may part tomorrow.
Though the past fades with memories,
Still the things we've shared linger on.
Golden moments you've brought to us,
Kittie-Car to you our song.
